

Lucas Winery Trip & Luncheon

Hello Sports Car Group Members: Leaders, Bill and Susan Long and Co-leaders, Ron and Elly Goleno would like to invite you to a fun day of wine tasting with a private touring of the Lucas Winery in Lodi on Wednesday, April 27, 2011. The $10.00 fee for wine tasting is being waived for all LHSCG members attending this tour thanks to Susan and Bill Long and their friend at Lucas Winery.

After our tour and tasting, we have set up a luncheon at “Woodbridge Crossing Restaurant” located just 6 minutes away. Here, we can enjoy a variety of food choices from Salads, Burgers, Grilled Chicken, Stuffed Prawns, Prime Ribs, and Rudy’s Baby Back Ribs with other delights (and let our wine tastings settle)... before we end our day!

We’ve scheduled picture taking for 8:30 AM to allow a departure from Orchard Creek Lodge Parking Lot at 8:45 AM. Our first stop will be a planned 40 minute visit at “Starbucks Coffee House” on Meadowview Rd. in South Sacramento. Our arrival at Lucas Winery is expected to be around 11:30 AM. Here we will meet with our tour person and should be at Lucas Winery for almost 1½ hours. Lunch is set for 1:00 PM (and/or later, depending upon arrival) with separate checks allowed at our tables.

The drive to the winery, wine tour, and luncheon should take about 5 hours and entails about 83 miles one way.

Our route will be mostly back roads except for a small required route using Hiway 99 and Interstate 5 (about 24 miles of freeway driving). Note: The other half of this trip going to the winery will include driving in the Delta Area’s back roads.

See our LHSCG web page at <http://www.lhsportscars.com/> for more details, including maps with routes, info on Lucas Winery, and a lunch menu for Woodbridge Crossing Restaurant.
