Tour Events: Dave Altstadt

Nadine Miller reported on the Crystal Hermitage Garden tour and lunch.

Vic Kremesec reported on the Ironstone/Murphy's two-night tour.

Both reported that there was lots of fun, good food, and interesting tours.

Future Trips were discussed by-

Linda Snyder and the Monte Vista Inn, Dutch Flats tour. Tour is full.

First Tahoe trip is full but second has been scheduled for September 5/6.

Carl Grondona discussed the Haggin Museum tour.

Other trips are planned so members need to be watching for announcements of sign ups.

Wayne Sloan is coordinating the 3rd Thursday impromptu tours and encourages everyone to save the date each month.

Please see our Club Website for dates and Tour Leaders and when signups are available.

OLD BUSINESS:

Jo reported that the IRS filing has been approved. The Club is now officially a tax-exempt organization.

NEW BUSINESS:

No new business.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Bob Spengler, Edy Ternullo (at Potter's game), and Jo Fratessa celebrate birthdays in May. Carol and Joe Asnault will celebrate their 56th Anniversary. Congratulations!

Betcha don't know who this is? ...

No one was not able to recognize two cute photos of Edy Ternullo.
A photo of Ernie Drake and his brother also stumped everyone.

A Special Presentation on the Concours d'Elegance on May 19

Chuck Schmidt introduced Coordinators Brian and Michele Moore. They discussed the upcoming Concours and showed video of their Serrano Show which has run for 16 years. The Lincoln Hills show will be different in that only autos that have previously been awarded Best of Show will be shown. The judging will be on the Concours point system but will also take into account the rarity and history of the auto. Other events will be a fashion show, food, and wine tasting.

It is expected that 75 of the Best of the Best will be on display.

The Lincoln Foundation will benefit from a Gala held the night before.
Brian and Michele thanked the Lincoln Hills Sports Car club for their support.

Ron Goleno's video of the Crystal Hermitage ride was enjoyed by all.

Those in attendance enjoyed a social gathering after the meeting.

Respectfully submitted
Pam Berry Secretary
