

NAPA VALLEY WINE TASTING DAY TRIP

The Dyer's, Avila's and Glaushes are planning a wine tasting day trip to the Napa Valley, on Thursday, September 12. We will be going via Lake Berryessa, with a stop in Winters, before arriving at V Sattui Winery in Saint Helena for lunch and wine tasting. They have a great deli where you can purchase sandwiches, salads or meats, cheeses and bread. They also have a fabulous dessert selection. You can check them out ahead of time at <http://www.vsattui.com>.

From there we will travel to Baldacci Winery. Baldacci is a very small winery with excellent wines. You can check them out as well at <http://www.baldaccivineyards.com/>

Both of the wineries charge a per person tasting fee...seems to be the thing to do. V Sattui has a $10 fee for premium tasting and $15 for reserve tasting. Baldacci Winery charges $20 per tasting which is applied to wines purchased.

We are limiting this run to 15 cars, as Baldacci Winery is a very small winery, and parking is at a premium.

We will meet at Orchard Creek parking lot, by the Wave (the usual spot) at 8:45 a.m. leaving at 9:00 a.m. sharp.

Please R.S.V.P. to George Glaush at (See LHSCG Roster for contact information).

Hope you can join us...
