We will have lunch at the Road Trip Bar & Grill in Capay on their outdoor patio. This restaurant is wonderful. We passed by numerous times but tried it only after Dan recommended it. What a surprise! Despite its unassuming exterior, the inside is country-western motif, bright, clean and fun. The service was great. It has a fairly large menu to choose from, and the food is good. It has 4 1/2 stars on both Yelp and TripAdvisor. Wish we tried it sooner!

This year we will shorten the trip a little. We will go to Capay through Knights Landing (about 1 hour 20 min). After lunch, members will have the choice to return home, or follow the Breckons for a one hour round-trip through Capay Valley. (We will do a trip through Sutter Buttes another time.)

Our leaders will be the Breckons, Dan Roberts, the Millers, Jeanne Cervantes and Wood McCann. With four cars leading we can take quite a large group.

Hope to see you then!

Important: If you head home going north on Co Rd 85 through Knights Landing, then follow these printed directions exactly. If you use your navigation system, it may try to turn you from 113 to 99 early, onto Kirkville Road. This is a very rough road. Don't go there!
