Howdy ye all !!!!

Okay all you buckaroo's, now is the time to show off your horseback and ranch hand talents. We will be traveling to a Guest Ranch located East of Quincy, Cal. The Ranch is nestled among the pines, very scenic and the whiff of horse manure really sets the stage for a full filled night. The package includes: Lunch on day of arrival, trail ride, wagon ride to a "chuck " wagon bar-b-que, bonfire hoedown with singing and story telling, lodging and breakfast in the morning. This would be the one time you can dress like you really want to and blend right in. Don't forget the authentic cowboy hat. The accommodations are The Lodge, which are individual rooms, and cabins, which have one to four beds, all one bath. Great having more than one bed. Remember you are at a Dude Ranch and the beds are so / so but you can play swap-a-bed. There are some queens, mostly doubles and of course the good old bunk bed. There is a beautiful deck surrounding the swimming pool. There is a game room, a rec hall, dance hall, soda, beer and wine bar. They sell the soda, beer and wine and appreciate the business but if you prefer to bring you own, you may. The price is $300.00 inclusive. With the exception of drinks. At the time of booking and at check in, please tell them if you do not want to go on the trail ride. This will be deducted from your bill. For those that don't ride, ( 1 hour), you will be able to enjoy the facilities of the Ranch.

September may seem like a long ways off but the Ranch is very busy so reservations are needed ASAP and they do have a cancellation policy. Please do join us for a very memorable road trip to a promising memorable Dude Ranch experience.
